Priestly Communication

Vocation:

Just as in the life of every Christian, God communicates with us and makes us instruments in each other's lives. With the priest, especially for the mission entrusted to him, communication with God is fundamental for people to have an experience of faith and love.

In this video, get to know the testimony of Father Arnaldo Rodrigues.

"Our greatest communication relationship is primarily with God. "

Priestly Vocation: And then suddenly you hear a song

Saint John Paul II, when he wrote the Letter to Artists, he related the beauty expressed in art and the Superior Good, which is God.

"How many times did God use beautiful songs to talk to us?"

In the life of the seminarist John Paul, it was also like this. And with you, did God speak that way?

Priestly Vocation: We Love the Poor not the Poverty

The priest is a friend of the poor. He is like a shepherd and, as Pope John Paul says, he must “smell the sheep”.

“A priest is someone who is not indifferent to the needs of people and, in the heartbeat of Christ, gives his life for the Church, for humanity and for those who experience material, moral and spiritual poverty.”
